

NEWCASTLE ROYAL GRAMMAR SCHOOL

MUZLIFAH HANIFFA – NOMINATED GOVERNOR

PROFESSOR MUZLIFAH HANIFFA – APPOINTED BY NEWCASTLE UNIVERSITY

I am a Wellcome Senior Research Fellow, Lister Institute Research Fellow and Professor of Dermatology and Immunology based at Newcastle University.

I graduated from medical school in Cardiff and trained as a junior doctor in Cambridge, before undertaking my dermatology specialist training in Newcastle. I currently lead a laboratory-based research group focused on understanding the human immune system and how it can be manipulated to enhance vaccination and treatment strategies.

I also pursue an active art-science public engagement programme in collaboration with the Newcastle Centre for the Literary Arts and Culture Lab. You can take a look at a digital tour of my art-science exhibition Inside Skin through the following links:
