

NEWCASTLE ROYAL GRAMMAR SCHOOL

TRACEY HARTLEY – CO-OPTED GOVERNOR

TRACEY HARTLEY – VICE CHAIR

I have lived in Whitley Bay for the past 20 years with my two children having relocated from London.

I am a Chartered Surveyor by profession, specialising in institutional investment into residential property. These days I commute weekly to London as I am Head of Residential at London's Howard de Walden Estate in Marylebone. Prior to this I spent 10 years at Grainger plc, including a period fund managing its co-investment vehicle with Dutch Pension Fund Manager, APG.

When I'm not working, I enjoy spending time with my family and friends.

I have been a governor at the RGS since 2016 and am also a trustee of educational charity The Quintin Hogg Trust, a director of the Institute of Residential Property Management, a member of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors Residential Professional Group Board, co-chair of the UK Apartments Association Education Committee and also sit on the South-East regional committee of Women in Property.
